Join the fun this summer at the Oregon coast!
FW 301 Field techniques for marine mammal conservation

1-credit weekend course
July 1-2, 2017

Taught in Newport at Hatfield Marine Science Center
Collect data from boat based and shore based surveys of harbor seals and gray whales
Analyze photo-identification data and apply statistical methods for conservation
Completion or concurrent enrollment in FW302 required

Questions and Additional Information:
Renee.Albertson@oregonstate.edu or http://hmsc.oregonstate.edu/academics/courses-hmsc/summer-term