Join the fun this summer at the Oregon coast!
Field Techniques for Marine Mammal Conservation
(FW 301) CRN: 72639

1-credit weekend course
June 30 – July 1, 2018

Taught in Newport at Hatfield Marine Science Center
Collect data from boat based and shore based surveys of harbor seals and gray whales
Analyze photo-identification data and apply statistical methods for conservation
Completion or concurrent enrollment in FW302-Biology and Conservation of Marine Mammals required

Questions and Additional Information:
Michelle.Fournet@oregonstate.edu or http://hmsc.oregonstate.edu/academics/courses-hmsc/summer-term